HOUSTON ASTROS' MOTION TO SEAL

Houston Astros, LLC, Astros HRSN GP Holdings LLC, and Astros HRSN LP Holdings LLC (collectively the "Astros") move for leave to redact certain information from the publicly filed version of their Reply in Support of the Houston Astros' Motion to Dismiss Involuntary Petition for Chapter 11. In support hereof, the Astros respectfully state as follows:

1. On September 27, 2013, Houston SportsNet Finance, LLC; Comcast Sports Management Services, LLC; National Digital Television Center, LLC; and Comcast SportsNet California, LLC (collectively the "Petitioning Creditors") filed an Involuntary Petition under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code against Houston Regional Sports Network, L.P. (the "Alleged Debtor" or "Network"). Sept. 27, 2013 Involuntary Pet. [Dkt. 1].

2. On October 7, 2013, the Astros filed a Motion to Dismiss the Involuntary Petition. Oct. 7, 2013 Mot. to Dismiss [Dkt. 64].

3. On October 16, 2013, the parties filed a Stipulation and Order Governing the Production and/or Disclosure of Confidential Discovery Materials [Dkt. 97].

4. On October 24, 2013, the Astros will file a Reply in Support of their Motion to Dismiss, which contains commercially sensitive and competitive terms from the Astros' Media

Rights Agreement. Accordingly, the Astros request that the Court authorize, pursuant to Section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9018, confidential treatment for such commercially sensitive information.

5. In addition, the Reply will contain information from deposition transcripts and documents that the Petitioning Creditors designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” pursuant to the protective order. The Astros redacted such information out of an abundance of caution, in an effort to respect the Petitioning Creditors’ confidentiality designations. The Astros take no position as to whether the materials designated by the Petitioning Creditors should be maintained under seal.
